Advent is a time of preparation and waiting, a time for adorning our homes and hearts in expectation and celebration of Jesus' birth. Christians throughout the world decorate their homes and churches in preparation for the festive family gatherings and church pageants and services that characterize the Christmas season.

The "hanging the greens" service focuses on the symbols of Christmas. These holiday decorations renew the customs of Christians in centuries past. By shedding light on our Advent traditions, we also shed light on God's gracious gift to his children, the birth of the babe born in Bethlehem so many years ago.
